Black mail—The letter bags for Liberia.

A NATIONAL SATISFIER—Kissing the Goddess of Liberty.

Portraits—People who have a very small amount of cents and a great quantity of rhymes.

Protectionists—the ladies who desire the protection of a husband, and the fulfillment of all his duties.

Dr. Wm. Daily is announced as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction in Indiana.

The Rev. Mr. Lottimer, of Memphis, will preach to-day in the Walnut-street Baptist Church.

The HONORABLE—A thirty days draft from the cap of blis, which if not renewed, bankrupts the firm involved.

PARODY CONCERT TROUPE.—We understand that this admirable troupe will give one concert in Louisville on Tuesday night next.

CLOTHING AT COST.—J. L. Dwyer advertises that he will sell his excellent stock of clothing at about the cost of the goods.

A good circulating medium—a pretty woman in a cline. Anybody would take her.

THEATRE.—To-morrow evening Miss Davenport, an actress of decided talent and finish, will commence an engagement. She will appear as Parthenia in "Izgoran."

The President in our columns must serve as an excuse to our advertising friends, for the non-appearance of their favors. In a day or two all will be right.

Frankfort, last evening, was full of Democrats. The hotels were crowded, and the town was lively with the excitement. Our Frankfort letter is very interesting.

An advertisement in yesterday's paper called for a lost key to a dead lock. We trust the finder will send it to Washington, and try if it will unlock the congressional dead-lock.

The ladies, "to a man," are the fiercest abolitionists extant. They would take by force of arms a whole box of Cuba if a good looking fellow asked them to follow him even to the death.

We have made arrangements for a full report of the proceedings of the Democratic State Convention at Frankfort, and will furnish it to our readers as soon as possible after the adjournment of the Convention.

The Marshal of the Chancery Court will sell to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, at the Courthouse door, six very valuable slaves, some desirable property in the lower part of the city, &c.

It is generally conceded that the Convention of the Untrified, to assemble at Frankfort on Monday, will be one of the largest gatherings of the kind ever got together in our good old Commonwealth.

"LILLY VALE."—We publish this morning a beautiful ballad by our fair contributor, Lilla, bearing the above title. It is charming, simple, and teaches a lesson to all proud men and women. It is delicate, beautiful, and must be the reflex of the heart of the author.

THANKS.—The presence in this city of many delegates to the State Convention was substantially indicated by the accessions to our subscription list. One gentleman from a neighboring county planned the cash for fifty-five subscribers (the Democrat and another) and brought with him a club of twenty-one subscribers. We thank our kind friends.

A large auction sale will take place to-morrow morning at L. Kahn & Co.'s commission house, 494 Main street, when L. Graham, auctioneer, will offer for sale a large assortment of new and well selected stock of furniture and everything required for house-keeping purposes. Also, 600 yards all-wool fancy pattern of carpet, one sewing machine, 50 assorted looking glasses, clocks, coffee mills, German cigars, chewing tobacco, Bourbons and rye whiskeys, French and domestic brandies, New York gin, stomach bitters, curry and blacking, &c., &c., 100 great gross fancy matches. All the above mentioned articles will be positively sold without regard to price.

BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS.—To-day, forty years ago, the iron-willed hero of the South, with his unconquerable soldiers, bested back at New Orleans the invaders of our country. The details of that memorable battle are familiar in the mouths of babes, and it would be useless to reiterate what every one knows so well. It is meet that so signal a defeat of our enemies should be marked in the calendar, and as the anniversary falls on Sunday, Capt. Watkins fired the customary salute last evening at sundown. The reverberating cannon were suggestive memorials of a time when the very sounding metal men and patriotic die-hard. It is strange how the relations of the South and England have changed since that day. Then England was the enemy of cotton bales; to-day she is their best friend.

On our fourth page we publish an account of a remarkable seduction and infatuation in France. A letter from Tours says that since her acquittal, Mlle. Angeline Lemoine has received several offers of marriage; she will, however, be content to place her lot in a convent during her minority. The fact, the coachman, received a divorce of 1000 while the trial was going on, for going to a photographer to sit for his portrait. The house at Chinon which Mlle. and Mlle. Lemoine inhabited is advertised for sale, and crowds of people go every day to look at it. On the chimney-piece in the drawing-room there are two porcelain vases, in the style of the empire, representing the subjects which have a strange bearing on the facts that were in the mind of the seductress and led to such a tragic conclusion. The mottoes on these two vases are—"Comment l'esprit vient aux filles" and—"Comment l'esprit vient aux garçons."

Yesterday was a mean, drizzly sort of day; damp underfoot, lowering overhead, and blue as theatrical fire in a melodrama. The Board of Directors of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society will meet at Frankfort, on the 10th inst., to indicate the locality for holding the next annual fair.

A contemporary states that in Sandeville, a village near Lexington, on Thursday night, a man named Hart murdered his wife and child by cutting their throats, and then committed suicide by blowing his brains out.

One-half the business portion of the town of Hickman was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. All the buildings on Front street, which contained the principal business houses, were laid in ashes.

A joint resolution was adopted by the Legislature, requesting the Governor to order salutes to be fired on the 9th of January, instant, (the 8th falling on Sunday), in honor of the glorious victory achieved at New Orleans by the American army under General Andrew Jackson, over that of the British, on the 8th day of January, 1815. Also on the 23d of February, in honor of the birth-day of General George Washington, "the father of his country." And also, on the 23d of February, in honor of the Nineteenth Anniversary of the glorious victory of the United States forces under General Taylor, over that of the Mexican, at Buena Vista, in which the Kentucky troops bore an honorable and conspicuous part.

Mr. Blackstone, of Kansas Express, has been sent there by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

It is said that the telegraphic announcement of the negro insurrection at Bolivar was a Munchausen story, originating in a rival paper.

Religious Intelligence.

Rev. J. W. Irons, of Ohio, a minister of the Universalist denomination, will preach in the Christian Tabernacle, at Jeffersonville, on this evening at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. T. A. Hoyt has returned to the city, and will preach in the First Presbyterian Church to-day at the usual hour.

Rev. Mr. Cheney, of the Diocese of Western New York, has accepted a call to Christ Church, Chicago, and will enter upon his duties about the first of March. Rev. Henry Adams, lately connected with Christ Church, in that city, has removed to the Diocese of Ohio, and taken charge of a church at Akron.

In a note dated Mr. Pleasant, Iowa, Dec. 31, Bishop Hamline says to the Northern Advocate, "My eyes are failing me much. Health very feeble. Mrs. H. comfortable. Mr. H. joins me in Christian love to you and sister H. 'Almost happy' in the love of God. All is well. Affectionately, J. W. Irons."

It is said that the late Ex-Chancellor Bibb, of Kentucky, some ten years ago, in conversation with St. Paul, rose from his chair, and stretching himself to his full height of six feet, he said, "Why, sir, the Almighty knew he was a giant, for he treated him as a giant. It required a stroke of lightning to make him understand, and when he did understand, he understood like thunder."

The new Baptist Church at Lexington was dedicated last Sunday. Dr. Campbell, President of Georgetown College, officiating.

Rev. Dr. B. R. Campbell, President of Georgetown College, will preach in the Baptist Church in Frankfort to-day.

The Rev. Thomas A. Hoyt has returned to this city, and will preach in his church (First Presbyterian) this morning at the usual hour.

The eighth of the series on Christian Doctrines will be given at the Unitarian Church to-morrow evening at seven o'clock. The discourse will be in explanation of passages from the Bible which have been selected by Trinitarian friends.

Rev. Thomas R. Welch, formerly of Paris, but recently of Helena, Arkansas, has been called to a new field of ministerial labor at Little Rock. His correspondents will note his change of residence, and govern themselves accordingly.

Many of our readers, says the New Albany Ledger, will remember an occurrence that took place at the wharf in the month of May, 1857, in which a man, whose name was unknown, was knocked overboard from the steamer Evans, and was drowned. Two young men, John Clark and Thomas Fawcett, were arrested as the perpetrators of the deed; but their trial was postponed, and Fawcett escaped. Clark was held to bail to appear at the Circuit Court, but owing to the absence of witnesses his trial was continued from court to court, till finally Clark died, and the case was dropped. This morning Fawcett surrendered himself to the Sheriff, was taken before Judge Lafollette, an examination waived, and he was held to bail to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court, in the sum of $2,500.

Special Train to Frankfort this Morning.

The scores of delegates to the Frankfort Convention who departed the city yesterday too late for the afternoon train, are reminded that a special train will leave the Frankfort depot this morning at eight o'clock. Tickets for the round trip $4, and good for three days. Let all who would enjoy a day at Frankfort embrace this occasion, and be on hand in season.

Last evening an unpurged drunken rascal, named Jake Elderkin, pursued Mrs. Griesbach, whose husband kept a clothing store on Market street, into a stove-maker's shop, and there the greater portion of her clothing off. What adds to the meanness and brutality of the act, was the fact of the advanced state of pregnancy of Mrs. G., as the consequence of her fright may be serious. Officer Sweeney being alerted, arrested Elderkin, who made some lame excuses, and was handed with such a degree of tender compassion that finally he succumbed and went peacefully to jail.
